

Illinois Association of Vocational Agriculture Teachers
State Horticulture Career Development Event

Select the best answer from the choices offered to complete the statement or answer the question. Mark your answers on the Scantron sheet. DO NOT MARK ON THIS SHEET.

1. Misting systems are often used to root cuttings because misting
 - A. reduces the time required for hand watering.
 - B. keeps a film of water on the plants which reduces disease problems.
 - C. keeps the humidity high which prevents wilting of cuttings.
 - D. keeps the fertilizer levels high so roots form quickly.

2. Light quantity refers to the intensity or concentration of sunlight and varies with the season of the year.
 - A. True
 - B. False